The summer camp is occupying the minds of Scouts and Wolf Cubs. The Scouts will be in camp at McGillivray Creek from 19-27 of July and the Wolf Cubs will camp at Ellison Creek, one-half mile north east of Sentinel Station, from 24-30 of July. Hillcrest Wolf Cubs are now in camp at the site to be occupied by Blaimore Cubs.

Parents and citizens will be especially welcome at camp to see the activities of camp life. A dedication of the Wolf Cub flag will be held in the near future.

REV. DR. POWELL TO BE HERE SUNDAY

Rev. Dr. Thomas Powell, superintendent of United Church missions for Southern Alberta, will be in Blaimore on Sunday and will address the mass service of the Sunday schools and congregation at 11 a.m.

Following the service, the question of securing a successor to Rev. J. W. Smith, B.D., as pastor, will be considered.

A young lady, studying for the teaching profession, slipped away from the school one day, without saying anything, to become secretly married. A couple of days later, the young bride sent the following telegram to the principal: "Have been honeymooning at Niagara. Will be back to Normal tomorrow."

D. H. ELTON FORMER NEWSPAPER EDITOR

In a letter to the editor of The Journal, Mr. Elton, who last week addressed the citizens, states:

"You are no doubt aware that 'Old Man Simpson,' of the Cranbrook Herald—one of the best newspaper men that ever graced earth; J. J. Young, of the Calgary Herald; Col. Porter, news editor on the Calgary Herald; Bob Edwards, too well known to require any comments, and your humble servant organized the Alberta and Eastern British Columbia Press Association, outlined the territorial division, drafted the constitution and by-laws and started 'her going.'"

"Only Col. Porter, now doing syndicate work from The Tribune, Winnipeg, and 'yours truly' remain in this estate. Times, conditions and everything else have changed. I was one of the first newspaper men at the Frank slide; went over the mountains from Cardston with a photographer and 'shot out' news for eastern papers. There were the days, departed never to return."

Mr. Elton also states that he enjoyed his visit here, and would be pleased to come again if he can be of service in addressing a citizens' meeting. Coleman people will be pleased to have further visits from him.—Coleman Journal.

"Tarzan the Ape Man"

"Aeroplane Spawn" was the name given recently to the largest salmon trout ever caught in the waters of Jasper Park, at least within the memory of the reputed oldest inhabitant.

Weighing 16 pounds, 11 ounces, the big boy was landed by Frank McLeod, a C.N. employee, who spent his afternoon off with a boat and wire troll. The fish was so named because of the fact that Pyramid at that time became the base for a "Boeing Wap" flying boat which is making scenic trips through the Park.

An American passing through an English village stopped to talk to a farmer.

"Do you get much rain here?" he asked.

The farmer shook his head. "A little, but not much," he said. "My neighbor over there gets more than me."

The American seemed puzzled. "Well, I sure don't see that," he remarked. "Why, your neighbor is only about a hundred yards away."

"Yes," said the farmer, "but he has more land than I have."

While screening gravel at the Hudson Bay railway yards at Churchill, George McDonald, machinist, found an old coin of the reign of George the Third. The coin is thin, and somewhat worn. Salvaging Lost Gold

Divers Are Bringing Up Ingots From Sunken Liner

Brest, France.—Thirty ingots of gold, valued at $1,000,000, were stowed away in the hold of the salvage ship "Artiglio II," as divers, with renewed vigor, dropped into the sea to fish up the rest of the $5,000,000 which went down with the liner "Egypt" ten years ago.

The $1,000,000 which was clumped down on the "Artiglio II" decks represents four years of dogged labor against the power of the storms and sea. Two stout ships have been lost in the quest and the lives of 15 seamen. The tragedy of the past was mirrored in the dramatic scenes on the "Artiglio's" deck when the ingots were brought up. There was a moment of silence in honor of the divers who were killed two years ago in the explosion which destroyed the "Artiglio I."

Paris, France.—The French salvage company, which first discovered the location of the hull of the liner, "Egypt," from which $1,000,000 has been recovered by the salvage ship "Artiglio II," will claim part of the booty, Captain Jean Davy said in an interview with Paris-Midi, Paris newspaper.

A firm of shipowners wired one of their captains: "Move heaven and earth; get here on Friday."

Just as they were becoming very anxious they got the reply: "Rained hell, and arriving Thursday."

More Prevalent in Cities

Common Cold Flourishes Best in Crowded Centres

That colds are associated with crowded cities public health officials have long suspected. Dr. Wilson G. Smillie of Harvard now supplies the supporting evidence. In four isolated communities colds are caught only from outsiders. Spitzbergen's case is especially impressive. The miners of that most northerly community live and sleep in damp, hot barracks, work in drafts at temperatures below freezing, but catch no cold. When Dr. Smillie concludes that the common cold must be attributed to an infection and probably to one that can never be seen under the microscope we naturally ask if there is no serum that will impart immunity. He holds out no hope. Only the secondary infections may perhaps be thus controlled. The primary cold seems to be unconquerable—the price we pay for swarming in cities.

A Perpetual Memorial

Late John Weller Superintendent Work On Welland Ship Canal

John Weller is dead, but the Welland Ship Canal will be a perpetual memorial to his work. Few Canadians were familiar even with the name of the man who was in charge of the construction of the greatest public work ever completed in the Dominion of Canada. Yet it was Mr. Weller who was on the job; it was he who was head of the surveys, designs and carrying out of the big task from 1912 to 1917. When work was resumed in 1918 after the war, it was Mr. Weller who was made consulting engineer. For the last few years he has been on pension from the Federal Government.

Contract Bridge

By Hamlin B. Hatch, Cavendish Club, Toronto

In my previous article the methods of valuing the trick taking probabilities of hands were given. Today I will deal with the application of these principles.

It must be understood that in Contract it is the endeavor of the partnership in any particular deal, to tell as precisely and as definitely as possible the story of the twenty-six cards held by the partnership. For this reason, certain basic conventions are necessary and also certain definite formulae for card valuations. Both of these have been outlined in previous articles.

The opening bidder, under ordinary circumstances, opens the bidding when his hand contains three or four high honor cards which, he thinks, under average conditions, will take from two to three tricks in any declaration the adversaries may make. Also the opening bidder guarantees, that, in case he and his partner are the declarers the bidding hand will take as a minimum, from four to six tricks. If the deal is played in the original declaration made, that there are nine tricks left for the three remaining hands, and that the opening bidder expects his partner to have at least three of these. Therefore when an opening bid of one is made normal expectancy by the opening bidder is three taking tricks in the declared suit in his partner's hand. These three taking tricks are made up of the three kinds of tricks, i.e., high card tricks, long suit tricks and ruffing tricks.

It must be borne in mind that, in Contract, provided there is no interference bidding, the first response by the partner of the original bidder is the vital response. In other words it is upon the first response that the success or non-success of that particular deal depends. It is, therefore, of the utmost importance that this first response be precise. In any raise by the partner of the original bidder's declaration, the raise must be given in full. As normal expectancy is three taking tricks, the full raise is the number of tricks above three that the hand contains. This works out as follows:—The original bid is one spade. This bid definitely informs the partnership that the bidding hand contains a minimum of from four to five taking tricks with spades trumps. The original bidder's partner decides that the spade bid fits his hand and that the deal should be played with spades trumps. The responding hand then figures the actual trick taking probabilities of the hand with spades trumps. If the hand will take four tricks, then he raises the bid to two spades. If the hand will take five tricks he bids three spades and so on. In other words he gives raises corresponding to the number of taking tricks he has above three. The following example will explain this.

North
Spades J. X. X. X.
Hearts X. X. X.
Diamonds A. K. X.
Clubs K. X. X. X.

West
Spades X. X. X. X.
Hearts X. X. X. X.
Diamonds J. X. X. X.
Clubs Q. X. X. X.

South
Spades A. K. X. X.
Hearts A. X. X. X.
Diamonds X. X. X.
Clubs X. X. X. X.

The Bidding—South is the Opening Bidder

1 Spade Pass 3 Spades Pass
4 Spades Pass 5 Spades Pass

In valuing North's hand the procedure is as follows:—
Half a trick for the four card spade suit.

Half a trick for the Jack of Spades.

One trick for the ability to ruff the third round of hearts.

Two tricks for the Ace, King of Diamonds.

Half a trick for the four card club suit.

Half a trick for the King of Clubs. Or a total of five taking tricks with Spades trumps. Normal expectancy is three tricks. Therefore North has two raises and bids three spades.

South's hand is valued as follows:—

Two tricks for the Ace, King of Spades.

Two tricks for the five card spade suit.

One trick for the Ace of Hearts. Or a total of five taking tricks. As North has shown five taking tricks and South has five, then North bids four spades, as the bidding has disclosed ten taking tricks in the combined hands.

The valuations which I gave you in a previous article are unnecessary in their accuracy up to ten tricks. In the next article it will be shown under what circumstances they are not accurate and why. It may be said however that ninety per cent of the time they are accurate.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

BLACK OR RED CURRANT JAM

4 cups (2 lbs.) crushed fruit.
½ cup water.

7½ cups (3½ lbs.) sugar.

½ bottle (½ cup) fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, crush thoroughly or grind about 2 pounds full-ripe fruit and measure it into a large kettle. Add ½ cup water, and stir until mixture boils. (With black currants, add ¼ cup water.) Simmer, covered, 15 minutes. Add sugar, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hot fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in fruit pectin. Skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about eleven 8-ounce glasses.

PARTY MACAROONS

2 egg whites.
1 cupful sugar.

¼ teaspoonful almond extract.

1 cupful rice flakes.

¼ cupful nut meats (chopped).

Pinch of salt.

Beat the egg whites until stiff, add the sugar gradually, then add the almond extract, coconut, rice flakes, salt and nut meats. Drop by spoonfuls on a buttered pan and bake in a moderate oven (ten minutes, or until the macaroons are a delicate brown).

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JULY 10

THE CALL OF MOSES

Golden Text: "Certainly I will be with thee."—Exodus 3:12.
Lesson: Exodus 2:11 to 4:30.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 6:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

Called To a Great Task, Exodus 3:10. The biography of great men is not confined to great events. It relates the incidents which are private, and describes the experiences which are spiritual and account for spiritual results. Thus it was with Moses; we must be with him in the wilderness in order to understand his conduct at the head of the host of Israel. At Horeb the call came to Moses to become the leader of his people, deliver them from oppression in Egypt, and bring them forth on their way to the Promised Land. He stood before a bush that burned and yet was not consumed.

"How clear is the anticipation here of what is now the accepted truth of physical sciences, that the energy of God, though always expended in nature and in history, is never consumed and never destroyed!"

"I have seen the affliction of my people. I am come down to deliver them. . . . Come now therefore, and I will send thee to Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel out of Egypt." With a flash of insight Moses knew that God was calling him to the stupendous task of delivering his enslaved brethren in Egypt.

"The dialogue between Jehovah and Moses, as in other cases, must be pictured, not as one audible externally, but as a word within the mind, which is gradually taught by him that, in spite of the difficulties which he saw before him, he was nevertheless to be God's appointed agent for accomplishing Israel's deliverance."—S. R. Driver.

"God has a way of His own into the spirit which He has made. He says His will upon man, and the man wakes to the realization that he stands under the obligation to meet the requirements of submission and definite service."

"And, as the path of duty is made plain, the man is given that I may walk therein. Not like the hireling for his selfish gain. But cheerful in the light around me, walking as one to pleasant service. Doing God's will as if it were my own. Yet trusting not in mine, but in His strength alone."—Whittier.

Body Emits Violet Rays

Rays From Woman's Eye Destroy Yeast Cells

A woman's eye killed yeast cells simply by looking at them at Cornell University recently. This discovery, suggesting the "evil eye," but found due to an ordinarily harmless form of ultra violet rays given off by human bodies generally was reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The experiments were described by Dr. Otto Rahn, of the Cornell Bacteriology Department.

The yeast cells—each a tiny particle—were laid on a glass slide. The woman placed her eye close, as in looking through a microscope. The cells died in a few minutes. Previous experiments with other parts of the body explain the lethal power in this feminine look.

For several years scientists have been reporting various discoveries that living things produce ultra violet rays. In the human body they were first found coming from working muscles, though not from resting ones. Then they were found in the blood and in carcinoma, a form of cancer.

The finger tip rays of several persons at Cornell killed yeast readily. Through quartz—placed above the cells, the killing required about 15 minutes; without it two to five minutes. The quartz helped to show that ultra violet was the cause. Yeast protected by ordinary glass which is impervious to ultra violet was unharmed.

After the finger, the tip of the nose was discovered to be a fine ultra violet "tube." Then came the eye.

The human rays are not always harmful. From some persons they are beneficial to tiny plants. There seems to be no difference in the kind but in the volume differs. When large it is lethal to yeast. The same person emits it at different rates. He may be "killing" at one period and "benign" at another.

Mrs. Adam Ate Apple

It wasn't Eve who ate the Biblical apple in the Garden of Eden. It was Mrs. Adam, Dr. H. A. Ironsides, Chicago, explained in a lecture at Fort Worth, Texas. The name Eve was conferred on her later, by Adam himself.

An Ontario farmer gave a barber two dozen eggs for a haircut. A good sport would have thrown in an egg shampoos.

What Price Accidents?

Burden Of Cost Falls On Just and Unjust Alike

The average citizen when he picks up the paper and reads about an automobile accident may feel a fleeting moment of sympathy for the victim, but he dismisses the incident from his mind as something that does not concern him personally. If he stopped to think, he would realize that every automobile accident involving injury or loss of life affects his pocketbook. Nearly every accident calls for emergency hospitalization and this in its turn costs money.

To this cost must be added the expense of automatic signals, court and traffic signals. Insurance rates also increase. So that any way one figures the matter out the burden of such accidents falls upon the just and the unjust alike.

In the year 1931 there were some 3,000,000 automobile accidents in the United States, with 1,000,000 people killed or injured. This is too appalling to even comment upon. The destruction of life and property in the and touches everybody's pocketbook more than the cost which the accidents involve. The sum total of all these charges should be great enough to make the people of the United States bend every effort to reduce automobile hazard.

The remedy lies solely with the people themselves—Argonaut, San Francisco.

Binder Twine Shipments

Eighty Million Pounds to Be Handled Over Lake Head Docks

Binder twine to the amount of approximately 80,000,000 pounds will be handled over the docks of Port William and Port Arthur ports this year to meet the requirements of western Canada, where grain fields are expected to produce one of the biggest crops in history.

Already twine by the thousands of bales is finding its way up the lakes to the twin ports to be unloaded and transhipped by rail to scores of distributing agencies throughout the three prairie provinces.

Twine that will tie up Canada's 1932 crop is coming from the mills of the International Harvester company, the Plymouth Cordage company and from Dutch mills in Rotterdam. Much of it will be unloaded at and shipped west from the transfer houses of the first two companies, but millions of pounds will pass through the C.P.R. and C.N.R. freight sheds, the whole operation providing employment for hundreds of stevedores during the summer months.

Alberta Urban Municipalities Want Portion of Taxes Levied by Province

Alberta urban municipalities believe they are entitled to a share of provincial income levies, gasoline tax and liquor profits. A resolution passed at the closing session of the annual union of Alberta municipalities convention asked the government for a part of these returns.

The resolution was passed following an address by Premier John Brownlee in which he declared a request for a share in provincial revenues would be of no avail under present conditions.

Mayor T. Bullivant, of Medicine Hat, was elected president of the association for the coming year and Calgary was chosen for the 1933 convention.

Great men had good mothers, but if all good mothers had great sons, what a world this would be!

"No, but I have heard that he has risen in the world."

"What? They hanged him?"

"TARZAN, THE APE MAN," COMING

All of the breath-taking adventures contained in the famous Edgar Rice Burroughs' story have been brought faithfully to the screen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in their thrilling jungle picture, "Tarzan, the Ape Man," which appears at Cole's theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Johnny Weissmuller, world's champion swimmer, who was signed by M-G-M to play the title role due to his tremendous physical build, is almost an exact personification of Tarzan. Standing six feet three in his stocking feet, his magnificent one hundred and ninety-pound body is shown swinging through the trees and in hazardous encounters with jungle beasts. Swimming sequences in the production are a very interesting demonstration of the technique that has enabled the aquatic star to win and hold most of the world's records for speed in water.

CORRESPONDENCE

Blairmore, Alberta, July 5th, 1932.
The Editor,
Blairmore Enterprise,

Dear Sir—I wonder what urged you to make such an erroneous statement as that which appeared in the last paragraph of the third column, on page eight, in your issue of June 30, 1932. The sentence to which I refer read: "Saturday's strike parade in Blairmore was less than one per cent English speaking." Surely, Mr. Editor, if you had watched the parade closely, you would have seen many men and women who, during your residence in Blairmore have grown from childhood to maturity.

I will grant you that the English spoken by these people is not with the tongue of a George Arliss or Henry Ainley, but it is the language as taught in the Blairmore school and is at least intelligible. If it is that you really prefer English spoken in dialect, I suggest that association with some of the men and women opposing the strikers would satisfy your craving in that regard.

Your, etc,

RALPH WOOTTON
[Almost as near English speaking as Murphy is Irish.—Ed.]

PAYING OUR BILLS

Depression's best friend is the man or woman who can with little or no effort pay his or her bills promptly—but doesn't. During the war it was a serious offence to utter seditious remarks or to commit unpatriotic acts. Today, with the whole world fighting a great economic war, thousands who should be doing their bit by paying their bills promptly are actually aiding the depression—depression—by letting the grocer, the landlady, the coal dealer, the newspaper, the general store, the doctor and others wait for the payment of goods that have been delivered or for services rendered. Payment of these bills—in full or in part—will help reopen jobs and stimulate business. Slow pay means slower business and more unemployment. If you cannot pay all, pay at least a part of every bill you owe.—The Cranbrook Courier.

Don't Lose Your Pluck!

When things are running crosswise, and the engine's out of gear, when the road is tough and rocky, and the sky is far from clear, when you're plainly up against it, and you're surely out of luck, that's the time to show your courage, to show your stock of pluck.

Most anyone can travel on a road that's smooth and clear. And anyone can get there if he only has to wade. But when the motor's balky and you're running in the muck, if you're ever going to get there you must call upon your pluck.

There's no thrill in easy sailing when the skies are clear and blue. There's no joy in merely doing things that anyone can do. But there is some satisfaction that is mighty sweet to take. When you reach a destination that you thought you'd never make.

So when everything's against you and your plans are going wrong, just face the situation and keep moving right along—Don't sit down and wall and whimper, even though you may be stuck. You're not absolutely helpless if you still possess your pluck.

—F. R. KIRK, in Alberta Oddfellow.

This morning there was delivered in the chambers of the News Publishing Co., the long delayed and keenly anticipated ruling of Judge McLellan in the case of Coffin versus Rhon, relative to the ownership of a yard or two of fishing gut and customary apertures, taken by a fish from the end of a line suspended from a pole held in the hands of plaintiff and subsequently recovered from said fish by defendant. His Lordship's pronouncement, why they are herded around like a flock of sheep. Communist leaders, work having. Defendant being in possession of said gut and being some play poor qualities in leadership, call-placed superior in aviorpous will no doubt continue to retain possession.

"Cock of the Air," a United Artists' picture, showing at Cole's theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is a brilliant picturization of a daring story. It is ultra-sophisticated comedy, minus the usual hokum and vulgarity associated with sophisticated pictures. Extravagantly produced, and brilliantly directed, "Cock of the Air" is sheer entertainment from start to finish. It is played by a crack cast, headed by Chester Morris, and supported by Billy Dove, Matt Moore, Yola D'Avril, Walter Catlett, Vivien Oakland and Louis Alberni. Lavish settings and daring, but deft treatment of a bold theme, combine to make "Cock of the Air" the sensation of comedies.

The department of the interior announces that for the future "Wasagaming" will be the name given the township of Clark Beach and Clear Lake in Riding Mountain national park, in Manitoba. The name is syllabically pronounced: Wa-sag-a-ring, and is an Indian word which means "clear water." It was suggested by Edna Medd, of Winnipegosis, in a competition which brought 271 suggestions of names from children in Manitoba schools.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

With the altar banked with early spring flowers, and the morning sun rays stealing through the windows, one of the prettiest weddings of the season took place on Saturday, July 2nd, at 10 o'clock, at the Ladies of Sprova R.C. church here, when Stephen Kachaluba, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kachaluba, of Winyard, Saskatchewan, was united in marriage with Frances Susan, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kuska, of Corbin. Rev. Father Coys, of Michel, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride looked very charming in an ivory satin and silk chantilly lace gown in the prevailing empire style. Her veil was gathered into a cap and clasped about her head with a band of orange blossoms, from which it fell in long graceful folds. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink roses and pink and white carnations, tied with pink ribbon. Miss Annie Misera, an intimate friend of the bride, made a charming bridesmaid in yellow georgette, with the bodice of her gown embroidered in sequins and pearls. She wore a coronet of orange blossoms. The five other bridesmaids in attendance were Miss Helen Tymchuk, of Coalhurst; Misses Annie and May Polick, of Natal; Miss Annie Guchuk, of Hillcrest, and Miss Vera Weber, of Hillcrest. Little Victoria Seny and Clara Adamovitch, in dainty ivory, beaded satin dresses, with orange blossom coronets, preceded the bride to the altar as her attendant flower girls. Mr. T. Siaka, of Natal, was chief groomsmen. The assistant groomsmen were Mike Barychuk, John Press, W. Kondratov, Charles Siaka and Steve Vasek, all of Corbin. Peter Kachaluba, brother of the groom, and Mrs. Joe Matt, sister of the bride, acted as ushers. Following the ceremony, the bridal party retired to the home of the bride's parents, where intimate friends of the bride proposed toasts to her happiness, to which the bridegroom also responded, after which all friends and relatives accompanied the bride and groom to the B. & B. hall, where over four hundred guests wished the newly married couple all the happiness that could be wished for, following which dancing was enjoyed till early morning to the strains of quaint old-fashioned music. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kachaluba are leaving in the near future by motor for New York and other eastern points, and upon their return will reside in Corbin.

How About A Community Survey?

The more favorable weather conditions prevailing throughout the prairie provinces this year as contrasted with the previous three years, and the more encouraging prospects for an average or even better than average crop this year, have had the result of restoring confidence to hundreds of people who make their homes in purely rural districts and in the towns and villages which exist solely because of the agricultural activities in the districts of which they are the centre. True, there is little ready cash yet available, but hope has been renewed that the farming community of Western Canada has brighter days ahead. The acute discouragement of 1931 is passing, and people are again thinking and planning for the future.

Now is the time to think and plan. There are many little things to do that will mean much to community betterment, and to the betterment and improvement of the individual farmstead, but which were neglected in former years, frequently on the plea that people were too busy to attend to them. That plea does not hold good at present; people in our towns and villages are not so busy at present that they cannot afford to give some time and effort to community affairs; that is, things which call for the giving of some time and effort but which do not call for the expenditure of money, but in the doing of which valuable community assets can be created.

Before we all get so busy with our own affairs again that we feel we "have no time" for matters of general public concern, would it not be a good idea to make a survey of the "home" town or village, or community centre in strictly rural areas, with a view to effecting some improvement? For example, and without limiting the generality of the whole subject, as the law makers say, what is the present state of the school grounds? Have any trees, shrubs or flowers been planted? If so, has cultivation been maintained, or has the work of the past been neglected and the grounds become overgrown with weeds? In the school an eyecore in the district, the reverse of an inspiration to the children? Perhaps a little paint is needed, or an odd piece of carpentry. If so, why not organize a community "bee" and put matters right and make the school a place of community pride? A little time and effort by all making a small contribution of a few hours will work wonders.

And now about the local cemetery where the pioneers of the community and the loved ones from many a home are sleeping? It reflects the spirit of a community. Is it kept trim, and neat and green, with trees and shrubs keeping off the blistering glare of a hot summer sun, and a few beds of flowers to testify that good friends and loved ones have passed on and are not forgotten? Or is it woefully neglected, a tangle of weeds, a place one shuns to visit, and so desolate that every time a burial takes place, the sorrow and regret of relatives and friends is increased by the thought that the remains of the dear departed one are left in such a place? Travelling over the prairie many such desolate spots are to be noted. Why not devote a few other idle hours to changing the whole aspect of these sacred spots for the better? Let some public-spirited person organize their community to do the work on a purely voluntary basis.

And that soldiers' memorial to which in the early years following the war everybody was proud to contribute. It was erected as a tribute to war, but as a loving tribute and lasting memorial to those of the community who were the victims of war. If it were merely a memorial to war, it would be well to forget it and let it fall into decay. But it is a memorial to our best and bravest who made the supreme sacrifice for us. Is that memorial more beautiful today than when first created? Are there trees and shrubs, green lawns and flowers, all about it, and are they kept trimmed and watered, and well cared for? Whatever the answer may be; it will likewise indicate the ideals, the sentiments, the public-spiritedness of the community of today.

Do you reside in the treeless, level prairie country, and, if so, has your community united to transform a small section of prairie into a community park? There is lots of land available, seeds and seedlings can be obtained for very little, not infrequently without any outlay of money. All that is required to make a start is the voluntary effort of the public-spirited people of a community, and the contribution of some time and effort by them. And in these days, apart from the pleasure thus provided for your own people, such a little beauty spot or small park will advertise your community far and wide, it is by such an enterprise it will be remembered when travellers have long forgotten how many grain elevators or garages your town or village can boast.

Finally, the individual farmstead. Does the house still stand stark and bare on the bald prairie as it did ten or twenty years ago when you first homesteaded? Or are you living in one of those spots which are a delight to every traveller along our highways—a farm home surrounded by trees and hedges, with a bit of lawn, and a garden, small though it may be? The money cost to effect a truly marvelous change is not large, it means to have the necessary ambition and to expend a little time and effort. Yet the dollars and cents value of trees and hedges about the farm home is very great indeed. Try to sell a farm without a trees in the competition with one that possesses such an asset and the truth of the statement will be demonstrated.

Many of our western cities, towns, villages and farms, which were hopelessly unattractive places ten and twenty years ago are today places which can boast of much beauty solely as the result of organized and persistent tree, shrub, grass and flower planting campaigns. With the breaking of the drought period of the last few years, now is the time for individuals and communities who have overlooked or neglected the value of such work in the past to begin. Give nature a chance and in the long run she will reward your efforts. Planting, cultivating and watching a grove of trees grow is a cure for pessimism and discouragement; it is a joy in the present and a harbinger of hope for the future.

Convicts Rescued At Sea

Nine Members Of French Penal Colony At Devil's Island Picked Up

By British Boat

Menaced by sharks as they drifted for five days in a waterlogged open boat on the Caribbean Sea, nine survivors of a dash for liberty from the French penal colony of Devil's Island were rescued by the British coastal steamer "Tarpon."

The men, after escaping from their island prison, which lies off French Guiana, attempted to reach sanctuary in Venezuela on the northwest. Storm at sea stripped the sail from their frail craft and filled it with water.

They told a dramatic story of the death of a comrade whose last words were "bury me ashore." Don't give me up to the sharks. I shall never see my friends again, but they will see my grave." Lured by the dead body, sharks sped after the boat, but the exhausted fliers succeeded in landing on the Pomeroy beach in British territory. There they buried their comrade in a shallow sand grave.

When they put to sea again, a tempest threatened their craft. They waved their shorts as signals, and the "Tarpon" responded as the men were losing hope.

Trying New System

Vegetables Will Admit Farmers To London Fair This Year

Farmers may say it with vegetables when they arrive at the gates of Western Fair in London, next September. The Fair Board are to consider a suggestion enthusiastically backed up by the relief department that all farmers be admitted in exchange for food or foodstuffs. To avoid a congestion at the central war house is proposed where vegetables will be received weeks in advance and admission tickets issued.

Last winter the city relief department experienced great difficulty in collecting sufficient vegetables and it is hoped that this system will solve the problem this year. It is estimated sometimes as many as 40,000 farmers attend the fair in a single day.

Willing To Pay

Consumer Will Give More For Best Quality Produce

There is a contention that the consumer is prepared, usually, to pay a premium for a higher quality, and a more attractively packaged farm product. This thought was exemplified lately on the Toronto wholesale markets when the prices of 11-quart baskets of Ontario green asparagus ranged from $1.00 to $1.50. From the ready acceptance of the $1.50 basket it was apparent that buyers were willing to pay the higher price when receiving infinitely better quality, and a more attractive pack.

Canada In Good Position

Shall Our Monetary System Be Changed

An Analysis Of Several Of The Proposals Made By Major Strang

The following in brief, are some of the proposals made by Major Strang, who has been made for changes in our monetary system:

(1) That the weight of gold in the Canadian dollar shall be reduced from 26 grains to about 12 grains.

This would reduce all internal debts, and those owing abroad payable in Canadian currency, by about 50 per cent. It would enable those who borrowed during the war years to repay with commodities and goods approximately the same value as when they borrowed. It would, however, increase the price of all imported foreign goods 100 per cent, or automatically impose an additional 100 per cent. tariff on all imported goods and commodities imported into Canada. Those who loaned money during the last two years of the war would lose about one-half of the value which they loaned. Those who borrowed money or purchased property during the last two years of the war would have the value of that money or property doubled. All those who owned property or money would suffer great hardships until readjustments took place because the price to everything they had to buy would quickly rise to double.

Apart, however, from the virtual loss of value of all debts of war years there would be put little permanent advantage because the price of all goods and services would rise and salaries would eventually rise by the same percentage as the gold content of the dollar.

(NOTE: This is simply inflation of currency—France, Germany, and other countries have tried it and have failed. It is practically impossible to control. Inflation seems to be difficult to stop once it has started. While individuals and groups are capable of stating where the inflation shall stop, and particularly who is capable of stopping it once it has begun? Inflation seems always to lead in the end to currency becoming practically worthless.)

(2) That the Canadian dollar shall be depreciated in value to the present value of the British pound, i.e., from 26 to about 20 grains of gold) and that it shall be tied to the pound.

(NOTE:—This is a mild form of proposal No. 1 above. How the currency of an independent country like Canada with its own control over its budget, income and expenditures, could be expected to fluctuate exactly with the value of the British pound in any case would fluctuate exactly with the value of their currency to depend solely on the action of the British House of Commons and of the British people and not upon their own action.)

(3) That the Canadian dollar shall be increased in value to that of the British pound as far as possible and tied to the full gold standard of the U.S.A. dollar, and that by law all debts shall be reduced by half and that the Government shall establish the proper relationship of prices of retail wages—salaries—goods—retail and wholesale, of professional services, etc., or, in fact, shall vary by law everything excepting money.

(NOTE:—This is financial and economic dictatorship, pure and simple, and is now actually being tried by Germany and is in fact the deflation of debts and the price of all things down to the currency value instead of the inflation of the currency up to the debts and prices of all else as is proposed in 1 and 2. If a low general price level of commodities continues long enough, of course, this state of affairs is automatically gradually brought about for the reason that many debts would not be possible of payment, or would be either written down or cancelled by bankruptcy or by private arrangement. But in any case wages and salaries eventually would have to decline to a parity with commodity prices.)

(4) That by international arrangement all countries should agree to reduce the gold backing of their official notes and paper currency by a definitely agreed upon percentage. This would result in a quick rise in price of all commodities, then the price of all goods, services, wages, salaries, etc., would soon follow and an even balance, in time, would be established. The only real effect of this would be the reduction of all debts, both individual, national and international.

This would allow a greater backing of gold behind notes and currencies than the 40 per cent., which is the maximum amount of gold available for monetary purposes in the world today seems to allow. This larger percentage of backing would consequently diminish the possibility of a country's currency being drained of gold, as England was recently.

The difficulty of getting many nations to agree either with the principle involved or of the amount of the reduction, might be almost insurmountable, although this method of controllable international currency is the most favorable of all proposals involving inflation by the majority of economists as a means of raising the price level of commodities and of overcoming what is probably the major defect of the gold standard.)

The proposal is practically the same as No. 4 above, but with the proviso that all gold reserves shall be kept in an international reserve bank at some central point—(Geneva has been suggested)—and that the gold behind the world's paper currency shall be raised or lowered periodically in order that the value of the currency will keep step with the world's gold production and with the production, distribution and consumption of goods and commodities.

(NOTE:—This, of course, would be a form of international managed currency with gold as a basis. This method would be much more difficult to bring into effect and to manage than proposal No. 4, and so would hardly seem to come within the realm of possibility, at least for the present.)

(NOTE:—The gold referred to in this article is pure gold mixed with silver—the two alloy in the British sovereign and one-tenth alloy in the U.S.A. and Canadian dollar—or 113 Troy grains of pure gold in the sovereign and 23 1/4 grains pure gold in the U.S.A. dollar. Or it means that the sovereign contains actually 4.585% as much gold as the dollar. (This article will be continued in our next weekly issue.)

Profitable Advertising
American Companies Find That Newspaper Advertising Pays
Many companies have maintained and even increased their earnings by consistent newspaper advertising, the American Newspaper Publishers' association said Sunday in announcing the results of a survey by its bureau of advertising.

One automobile concern which increased its newspaper budget 33 per cent, the bureau announced, showed a 40 per cent. increase in earnings during 1931. A manufacturer of electric refrigerators spent $200,000 last year in newspaper space, and dollar sales for the year were 460 per cent. of sales in 1930.

Of four leading tobacco manufacturers who increased newspaper space in 1931, three showed an increase in earnings, and one a slight decline from the high net of a year preceding. Aggregate expenditures of these four companies in newspaper advertising were increased from $20,000,000 in 1930 to $25,000,000 in 1931, and aggregate sales were increased from $105,200,000 to $111,300,000.

Changes in Climate
Scientists Find Earth Becoming Drier, Warmer and Cooler
Evidence that the world is growing cooler and dryer—and has been doing so for millions of years—has been found in tropical jungles by two scientist-explorers.

Traces of past changes in climate, and also hints of what the world may be like in the future, have been discovered during a "journey into the past" by Dr. Ralph W. Chaney of the University of California, and Dr. Erling Dorf of Princeton. Their findings were reported by Dr. Chaney.

In the hot, moist rain-forests of Central America and Venezuela the scientists found a sort of "lost world," where plant and animal life closely akin to that of the earth's ancient past would be either found or created. Two-thirds of the trees that lived in western North America millions of years ago, known today by the fossil imprints of their leaves in ancient rocks, have close relatives living in the forests of Venezuela, the scientists found.

Enforcement of Game Laws

Association Recommends More Strict Laws for Saskatchewan

Placing of the Saskatchewan game branch under a commission, taking of game law administration from politics and stricter enforcement of game laws by the appointment of more guardians and active participation by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, were asked in resolutions passed at the annual convention of the Saskatchewan Fish and Game Protective association.

The association will ask that ferry-men be appointed game guardians to enforce laws in river sanctuaries. Another important resolution was that game law infractions be prosecuted before magistrates in place of local justices of the peace.

Sugar Refinery For Manitoba

Establishment of a beet sugar refinery in Manitoba will be one of the developments of the present year, Theo Klipp, chairman of the industrial development board of Manitoba, stated at the annual meeting of the beet growers of the province. He said the American Sugar Beet Company of Denver, Colo., would start erection of a branch plant here this year and would have it in operation in 1933.

FAIR SUCCESS ATTENDS LABORS AT LAUSANNE

Lausanne.—Despite the pessimistic atmosphere of the past few days, the Lausanne Conference looks like achieving a measure of success in its gigantic task of solving the reparations and inter-governmental debts tangled that has Europe on the verge of a crash.

"Although I am sorry to say I cannot report to you we have got a complete measure of agreement, we have got, I think, agreements," Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, the chairman, guardedly commented at a meeting of the six principal powers at the conference.

These are the points on which all the principal powers, including France and Germany have finally agreed:

- (1) Adjustment of inter-governmental war debts and reparations should take place without delay in new disasters are to be avoided.
- (2) Steps are necessary to ensure the stability of the German currency.
- (3) The conference must end in something substantial, and so far as possible, final, although it is recognized a final settlement has to be adapted to a world settlement which includes the United States.
- (4) The conference must end, and the settlement must be such as will render possible restoration of confidence.
- (5) Artificial transfers disturbing the international balance of accounts should only take place—if at all—by the normal operation of international commerce and should be limited to that capacity.
- (6) Germany cannot pay at the present time.

Grasshopper Plague

Hope That Red Tick Would Abate Nuisance Has Proved To Be Unwarranted

Winnipeg, Man.—Hope that a tiny red tick, an attacker of grasshoppers, would aid Dominion and Manitoba agricultural departments in ridding the province's wheat belt of the worst grasshopper plague in 50 years, died today. "The hoppers are too robust," Norman Critchley, head of the federal government laboratory at Trebehan, Man., said the little parasites attack adult grasshoppers and do "about as much damage as a tick on a dog." If they continued their activities to young hoppers they would be able to materially check the grasshopper advance, he said.

Government experts said the grasshopper outbreak in south Manitoba is the worst in the history of modern agriculture in western Canada, exceeded only by that which lasted from 1873 to 1875.

Heavy Penalty For Fraud

Five Employees Of Stores In Moscow Sentenced To Death

Moscow, Russia.—Five employees of Moscow's state retail stores were sentenced to death after a six-day trial on charges of defrauding the state of 1,000,000 rubles (nominally $500,000) by theft, illegal raising of prices and by supplying speculators.

Seven others were sentenced to ten years in prison and eight were sent to jail for three to five years. Three other defendants were acquitted.

Printing Jobs Go Abroad

London, Ont.—Charging that $50,000,000 worth of printing for Canadian firms was done outside Canada in 1931, the Ontario-Quebec Conference of Typographical Unions trained its guns against this alleged condition. They will ask the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and other employing organizations to condemn the practice. The printing for some companies was done in countries as far away as Sweden, it was claimed.

Free State Senate Passes Oath Measure

But Bill Almost Unrecognizable On Account Of Amendments

Dublin, Ireland.—The Free State senate passed the Republican Government's bill to abolish the parliamentary oath of allegiance to the crown, but the measure has been amended so the bill is almost unrecognizable. As it stands, the abolition of the oath cannot be inserted in the constitution of the Free State.

"The government has no intention of accepting the measure in its present form," said Senator Joseph Connolly, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs. It would let the bill go to the Dail Eireann "with the results that might be expected," he added.

This means the Dail may again pass the original measure, which after 18 months would become law, despite the senate. The alternative is a general election in which the Republican Government would seek a concise mandate for abolition of the oath.

Deportation Case

Appeal To Supreme Court Of Canada To Be Delayed

Halifax, N.S.—The appeal to the supreme court of Canada on behalf of alleged Communists held here for deportation will be held up at least a week while Mr. Justice Ross, of the supreme court of Nova Scotia, considers the application for leave. When formal motion was made recently by L. A. Ryan, counsel for a group of eight of the alleged Reds, C. B. Smith, K.C., representing the crown, appeared in court. The application, which the J. Ross continued the application for a week, and intimated that he might hear further argument from Mr. Ryan.

The condemned men sought release under habeas corpus proceedings, but their action was dismissed by a supreme court judge and later by the full bench of the Nova Scotia supreme court.

G. Beresford, government member in the last House, will run as a Bracken follower and probably will be opposed by Col. Arthur Sullivan, Winnipeg lawyer.

Group Of Empire Farmers On Visit To Dominion

Quebec, Que.—"To see and to learn" might be the motto of the group of empire farmers who arrived here on the liner "Empress of Australia." They spent two days in Quebec prior to starting on a trans-Canada tour.

Thirty-seven in number and including 13 women, members of the party are all farmers or closely connected with farming, and represent the mother country, South Africa and Irish Free State. They are travelling under auspices of the British National Union accompanied by Arthur Cahan, Secretary of the Union, and former South African Trade Commissioner to Great Britain.

The party is composed of 12 members from all parts of South Africa, two from the Irish Free State and the remainder from England and Scotland. An Important Judgment

Ottawa Lumberman Awarded Full Amount Of Claim Against Brokers

Toronto, Ont.—In a judgment of far-reaching importance to brokerage houses D. B. Rochester, Ottawa lumberman, is awarded the full amount of his claim, $162,168.38, against I. W. Solloway, Harvey Mills and the Solloway-Mills Brokerage Companies by O. E. Lennon, assistant master at Osgoode Hall.

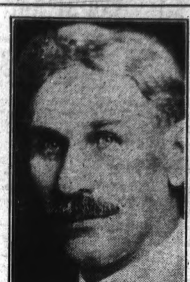

Rochester, who dealt with the brokerage firm for more than two years, is, by this judgment, returned every dollar he ever invested with Solloway, Mills and Co. He is also awarded interest at five per cent. from December 19, 1929.

FARM MARKETING BOARD MAY BE APPOINTED SOON

Ottawa, Ont.—A commission to study and report on the feasibility of a farm marketing board will be appointed by the Dominion Government in a few days it was learned here. It is reported that during his recent visit to the west Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, went into the matter with western producers and dealers and that considerable progress has been made towards reaching a decision as to the men who should form the commission.

It is planned that the commission would begin very soon to study the situation in order to be in a position to discuss the feasibility of a marketing board with exporters from other dominions who will be here for the Imperial Conference. The object of a board would be to avoid slumps in prices whenever Canada went on an export basis on such products as butter, bacon and other commodities in which the exportable surplus is small compared with the domestic demand.

Judgment Reserved

Supreme Court Deals With Peter Veregin Case

Ottawa, Ont.—Judgment was reserved in the supreme court of Canada on the application of Peter Veregin, imprisoned leader of the Doukhobors of western Canada, for leave to appeal against a conviction in Saskatchewan for perjury.

William J. Green, Ottawa, counsel for the Province of Saskatchewan, appeared for the crown. Veregin was represented by F. G. Maskaroff, Saskatoon.

With a number of clashes between opposing counsel largely on points of law, arguments centred on proceedings at the time of conviction in the king's bench court of Saskatchewan. After a jury trial, Veregin was found guilty in the king's bench division and was given a term of three years in Prince Albert penitentiary. On appeal to the appeal court, the sentence was reduced to 18 months.

Prospectors Use 'Plane

"Flying Box-Car" Carries Equipment To Northern Gold Fields

Lac Du Bonnet, Man.—Prospecting in Manitoba entered upon a new phase when ten prospectors with 6,000 pounds of supplies, equipment and five canoes, left here in an aeroplane for the Island Lake gold field, 200 miles north and on the Manitoba-Ontario boundary.

Their sky chariot was the huge Junkers of the Canadian Airways, the "Flying Box-Car."

The machine was chartered by the Manitoba Chamber of Mines with the result that the ten prospectors can get into the field at a cost of about $60 each, including equipment.

New Plans For India

London, England.—A comprehensive scheme for the future constitution of India, embodying both the aspects of federation and provincial autonomy, will be presented in a bill to be brought down in parliament by the British Government, Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary for India, announced.

Crop Conditions

Improvement In Western Provinces Is Indicated In Government Report

Ottawa, Ont.—Canadian crop conditions are much improved in the western provinces and distinctly lower in the maritime and eastern Canada, as compared with last year. This statement is made in the government report on crop conditions issued June 28.

Western crops have maintained their condition fairly well, the report states, in a period of spotty rainfall and higher temperature. Likelihood of heavy damage from cutworms is now past but grasshoppers are still dangerous and are particularly damaging in Manitoba.

In some large areas rain is needed to prevent crop deterioration, but generally the present moisture supplies are satisfactory.

In British Columbia, recent weather has been almost ideal with plenty of heat and rain. Hay is nearly completed. Cereal crops are looking fine.

Staging Wrigley Swim At Lake Waskesiu

All Entrants In Saskatchewan Event Must Be Amateurs

Saskatoon, Sask.—Permission has been granted to the Prince Albert Aquatic Club to stage the Saskatchewan Wrigley one-mile championship swims at Lake Waskesiu, Prince Albert National Park, Saturday, July 16.

In 1931 the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company, of Winnipeg, presented for annual competition two large challenges for the men and women and two provincial mile swimming championships. Two members of the Moose Jaw Aquatic Club, Percy Reynolds and Phyllis Dewar were the 1931 winners.

All entrants must be amateurs and should apply to William Schor, of the Saskatchewan pool players, Prince Albert, for entry forms.

Statues On Parliament Hill

Burnishing Up Statues At Ottawa For Imperial Conference

Ottawa, Ont.—Relieved of their mantles of green corrosion, statues on Parliament Hill of Queen Victoria and Sir John A. Macdonald will greet delegates to the Imperial Conference resplendent in experimental coats of varnish.

After months of work, national research council chemists prepared a solution to remove the marring corrosion. The varnish was applied in an attempt to prevent its recurrence.

NAME BRITISH DELEGATES FOR EMPIRE PARLEY

London, England.—Announcement of arrangements for at least four British cabinet ministers to attend the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa, in addition to Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, Secretary for the Colonies, who is not in the cabinet, indicated that Stanley Baldwin would lead the United Kingdom's delegation.

Mr. Baldwin is Lord President of the Council and, at the moment, acting Prime Minister. He will be accompanied by Lord Halifax, Minister of War, J. H. Thomas, Secretary for Dominion and Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, all cabinet ministers.

The Australian and New Zealand delegations have sailed for Vancouver from Wellington, New Zealand, and arrive in the Pacific Coast city on July 15. The conference opens July 21. Stanley Melbourne Bruce, Assistant Treasurer, and H. S. Gullett, Minister of Trade, head the Australian delegation, while New Zealand's principal representatives are J. G. Coates, Minister of public works, and Donnie Stewart, Finance Minister.

The first of the sections of the combined British delegations, including the commercial and industrial advisers, leave London this week. Representatives of South Africa, India, Northern Rhodesia and Northern Ireland also take their departure from London.

Reports from Dublin shed little light on the Anglo-Irish dispute that is likely to prove embarrassing at Ottawa. In announcement that President Eamon de Valera would not attend the Imperial Economic Conference because of pressure of business, it was indicated the Free State delegation at Ottawa would confine itself solely to consideration of trade questions and Dublin indicated it did not expect the larger issue of the Anglo-Irish dispute to be discussed.

DEMOCRATS WILL FAVOR REPEAL OF VOLSTEAD ACT

Chicago Stadium.—A plank putting the party on record for repeal of the 18th amendment and for immediate modification of the Volstead law was adopted by the United States Democratic National Convention.

Other high points of the 1932 Democratic pronouncement of policies included:

- Refinancing farm mortgages; extension of co-operative marketing; effective control of crop surpluses; and endorsement of "every constitutional measure" to help farmers to get out of production.
- Regulation of interstate utility companies and stock exchanges.
- Fuller generosity for all war veterans, but no mention of the cash bonus.
- Condemnation of the Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act and of "extravagance" by the Federal Farm Board.

A real contest developed in the committee against the tariff plank with opposition to the proposal of a "competitive tariff for revenue."

New Source Of Wealth

Investigate Possibilities Of White Wharf Fisheries In Hudson Bay

Winnipeg, Man.—A new source of wealth from the Hudson Bay is to be developed under the auspices of the Manitoba Industrial Development Board. The sub-committee on fish by-products will bring six white whales here from the bay for sampling.

The committee, has come to the conclusion there is a potential Canadian market for oil, meat and leather from the aquatic animals, and an overseas market is also thought to exist for certain of the oils which could be profitably exported through Hudson Bay. After preliminary tests of the product are completed, samples will be sent to England, and a survey of the European market will be made by a representative of a Winnipeg firm.

A. Cunningham, director of game and fisheries, who is chairman of the committee, hopes ultimately to see the establishment of a rendering plant at Churchill, sea port on Hudson Bay.

Retiring Ages Set

New Ruling Applies To Members Of Royal Canadian Mounted Police

Ottawa, Ont.—For the first time since organization of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, retiring ages for all members have been set by order-in-council.

The order places the retiring age of the commissioner at 65 years; deputy commissioner, 60; assistant commissioners, 63; superintendents, 62; and inspectors 60.

For the sergeant-major, the retiring age is 57 years; staff sergeants and sergeants, 58, and other ranks, 56.

The order goes into effect immediately, but there are few, if any, members of the force who have reached the retiring age.

Send Up Test Balloons

Altitude Of 65,000 Feet Is Attained In German Experiment

Stuttgart, Germany.—Three test balloons carrying measuring instruments were sent up 65,000 feet under the direction of Prof. Erich Regener, of the Technical University. The altitude was greater than that attained last year by Prof. August Piccard in his ascent to the stratosphere.

Each balloon was 6½ feet in diameter and the three were hitched together 13 feet apart with the instruments in a gondola between them. They were hauled down after three hours.

Papal Legate Visits Belfast

Belfast, Northern Ireland.—No untoward incidents marked the visit here of Cardinal Lauri, papal legate at the Eucharistic Congress. It was through a quarter mostly inhabited by Protestants that the legate entered Ireland's ecclesiastical capital. The route was diverted so that he would not have to pass through a Union district.

Vancouver, B.C.—Making the flight from Winnipeg to Vancouver in one day, Pat Reid, noted Canadian pilot, landed at Regina, Lethbridge and Grand Forks en route, and averaged 100

Il Duce is shown with Queen Helena of Italy, on one of the very rare occasions on which they have been photographed together. The picture was made during the recent services to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of Garibaldi's death in Rome. A monument to the wife of the national hero was unveiled at the Gianicolo as a feature of the celebrations.
